

Let's Practice!

Vanessa is learning a lot about stars and constellations.

Instructions: Write the correct words from the options to complete the sentences. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. All credit goes to my friend _____ me everything I know about astronomy.
a) who teach sister      b) which sister taught      c) whose sister taught
2. I'll show you an example _____ help you understand better what a constellation is.
a) that can      b) who can      c) whom can
3. According to an astronomy book _____ a few weeks ago, there are 88 constellations in the sky.
a) that i read      b) who i have read      c) that i have read
4. There are others, like the constellation "Pisces", _____ like two fishes going in two different directions.
a) who formation looks      b) whose formation looks      c) that it look
5. That must be the "Ursa Minor", _____ the "Little Dipper".
a) which is commonly referred like      b) which is commonly referred to as
c) who is commonly referred like

Let's Practice!

Michelle loves stars!

Instructions: Write the correct words from the Word Bank to complete the sentence.

Word Bank

sublime / pattern / astronomy / constellations / scorpions

1. According to an _____ book that I read a few weeks ago, there are around 88 constellations in the sky.
2. A constellation is a group of stars that forms a recognizable _____.
3. What did I tell you? Isn't the sky just _____ with all the thrilling things it has to offer us?
4. That constellation definitely has the pattern of a _____.
5. Look at all those _____ and stars that are twinkling!