

Let's Practice!

What could be the future of the human race?

Instructions: Complete the sentences below by choosing from the options that you are given.

Word Bank

may / like / will / should / likely / could / can't / could / can

1. One reason for looking for new planets _____ be that many people are concerned about our own survival as a species.
2. With all the wars, famine, and pollution, it is _____ life on Earth won't survive.
3. So, to preserve human existence, scientists have developed theories of how humans _____ live on a different planet.
4. There _____ be a similar world outside ours that has the potential to save our species.
5. It is possible that we _____ be packing our bags for Mars in the very near future.

Let's Practice!

Michelle talks about space exploration.

Instructions: Circle the correct option to complete the sentence. Read the sentences aloud. Check your pronunciation with your instructor.

1. Ever since the _____ of rockets, space exploration has taken new dimensions.
a) advent b) arriving c) adventure
2. Man is on a mission to discover the millions of galaxies and planets of which the world beyond ours is _____.
a) compromised b) comprised c) comprising
3. The physical _____ of space is conducted by both unmanned robotic probes and human spaceflight.
a) exploration b) explored c) exploring
4. The _____ of rocket technology, whose development occurred in the early 20th century, propelled space exploration to new heights.
a) advancement b) advance c) advancing
5. _____ improvement in space exploration, it is possible that we could be packing our bags for Mars in the very near future.
a) technique b) technological c) With the rapid rate of technological